ELIGIBILITY:

Residential, Contract, and Historic Preservation

Only ASID members who are individually practicing interior design or employees of an interior design firm may enter the competition in the Residential, Contract and Historic Preservation categories.

Architectural Design

Architectural firms employing interior designers, who are ASID members, may enter the Architectural Category if an ASID member was an integral member of the design team on the entered project. The Architectural category will be awarded to the firm only.

Each entry must represent a permanent installation completed after January 1, 2006. Projects receiving previous publicity are eligible. Entrants may submit as many projects as desired. Each project will represent one entry.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Upon receipt of your entry application, a binder will be mailed to you with entry requirements and deadlines. The completed binder must be returned to me and must include:

- A minimum of four 8 x 10 color prints
- A CD Rom with your project photographs formatted to use with a Power Point presentation
- Reduced floor plan of your entry in the 8 ½ x 11 sheet protectors, if needed, an 8 ½ x 14 plan folded once is acceptable
- Design concept statement
- (1) Black and white 3 ½" x 5" or digital photograph of designer
- All forms and photo/slide sleeves will be provided in the binder.

JUDGING:

An ASID Chapter outside of Tennessee will judge entries.

Judges will evaluate entries on the basis of:

- Presentation skills
- Design concept statement
- Space planning
- Creativity

The judges' decision is final. The judges reserve the right to withhold an award if the entries do not meet the criteria.
